Dear New Families to École Agnes Davidson,

Welcome to your new school! Below is some information to help you in your transition. Please make yourself familiar with our school website. It has a wealth of information with our blog posts, calendars, parent handbook, bussing information and upcoming events!

- Student Attendance - Please make sure your child arrives on time. All absences, planned late arrivals or planned leaving early, are to be reported by using the School Messenger system:
  1. Toll Free 1-866-879-1041
  2. Website, <https://go.schoolmessenger.ca>.
  3. School Messenger APP (Free APP from Apple or Google Play stores)
 Please Note: All students arriving late, or leaving early must report to the office for either a late slip or to be signed out so the office as updated/current records at all times for safety reasons or in case of an emergency.
- Students with medical alerts, such as epi pens or inhalers, that are to be kept at school, are required to have Lethbridge School Division medical forms filled out and signed by a doctor yearly. All medical alerts will be copied and put in confidential binders in each homeroom. Please speak to the office if you require forms or for more information.
- The Student Handbook can be found on the school website. Please review this with your child as appropriate to ensure you are familiar the schools' procedures.
- We welcome Parent Volunteers. Please connect with your child's teacher or school council for volunteering opportunities. All volunteers will need to complete a Digital Lethbridge School Division Volunteer form before the volunteering begins. We also have a lovely sign in/out binder and tag system in place for safety reasons or in case of an emergency.
